ַוּעָשִׂיתָ שַׁלְחָן עַצֵי שִׁטִּים ...

And you shall make a table of acacia (שָׁטִּים) wood (שָׁמָּיֹת כה:כג).

The שַּׁלְחָן was made of strong acacia wood, as were the מִּיבָת and מִּיְבַּת This was undoubtedly an extremely fine wood, fitting for such a lofty purpose: being part of the holy מִשִּׁבֵּן.

רְבֵּינוּ בְּחְיֵי finds an additional significance in the use of this wood, which is called שָׁשִּׁים in Hebrew. He explains that the letters of the word שַּשִּׁים form an acronym for the words the words מְחֵילָה and מְחִילָה and acronym for the words alvation and forgiveness. There was an important message for the nation to learn from these words. All the special gifts the Jewish people enjoyed, which these four blessings encompass, came to them through the conduit of the holy furnishings and vessels of the מִשְׁבָּן and the בֵּית הַמִּקְדָּשׁ and the בִּית הַמִּקְדָּשׁ and the מִשְׁבָּן.

But what about our own times, when we no longer have these בֵּלִים? How can we continue to receive these 'timeless' gifts?

תַבּינוּ בְּחַיֵּת answers this question by citing a famous passage from the בְּמָנְ שָׁבִּית חַגִּינָה (כייז:) which states, בְּמָבָ שָׁבָּית הַמְּקְדָשׁ קַיָּם - During the time that the מֵּיְבֵּחַ was standing, the מִיְבֵּחַ atoned for [the sins of] a person; now that the בֵּית הַמְּקְדָּשׁ is no longer standing, a person receives atonement through his table."

Which table atones for us and brings us blessings now that we no longer have the בֵּית חַמְּקְדָשׁ? Our dining-room table! If we feed the poor, welcome travelers and host guests at our table, then the dining-room table — or the kitchen table, for that matter — becomes our own personal מִּלְבַּח of atonement.

תבינוּ בְּחָיֵי concludes on an awesome note: "There is a custom among the pious people in France to construct their coffins from wood taken from their dining-room table."

Picture it: The people who have known the deceased, who have sat at his dining-room table, come to his funeral and see him being buried in a coffin that looks exactly like his table!

The message is clear, says בֵּנֵינוּ בְּחֵיֵּי. A person takes nothing of lasting value along with him to the עּוֹלֶם הָאֱבֶּעָת except for the תּוֹרָה that he learned, the מִצְּוֹת that he fulfilled, the אָדָקָה that he gave to people in need, and the goodness that he shared with other people around his table.

אַלְתֵּר זַּצִּ״ל אַלְתֵּר זַצַּ״ל , the 4th Gerrer Rebbe, was known for the way he managed to find sick and/or needy people. He would visit them at odd times of the day or night, leaving behind money, food and clothing. He also traveled to meet, food and clothing. He also traveled to meet אָדוֹילֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל late at night or early in the morning. One time, he arranged to meet the Klausenburger בָּדָּ at 4:00 a.m. On the way, he noticed a car that was stuck. He asked his driver to stop and the בָּדָּ got out to help. Upon his return אָנְמִילֹּוּת הָּעָד remarked, "It is a special זְּבָּוֹת to carry out בְּמִילֹּוֹת הָעָד to carry out זְבִּית to doesn't recognize you!"

Living with Torah

ועשו לי מקדש ... וכן תעשו:

They shall make for Me a מָקְדָשׁ ... and so shall you do (שָׁמוֹת כה:ח-ט).

קלדורות, for generations. The words לְּדוֹרוֹת, seem redundant. This teaches us that all the vessels to be made for the מָשְׁבֶּי that are mentioned are to be included in all future generations, i.e., in any future בֵּית הַמִּקְדָּשׁ Also, if any of the בַּלִּים needed replacing, the new ones would need to be made the same way.

The אַפָּת אָפֶּת explains לְּדוֹרוֹת, for generations, homiletically. Every generation needs to have the same involvement and excitement in the building of the House for יז. If a generation had a strong enough will for יז to reveal His שָׁכִינֶה on this world, then they would merit to build the בֵּית הַמְקְדָּשׁ If a generation does not merit to have a בֵּית הַמִקְדָּשׁ built in its days, it is only because it lacks a strong enough will.

בְּלָמִי בְּאָילוּ נֶחְרֶב בְּיָמִיוּ — Any generation that does not see the בית הַמִּקְדָּש built in its days, it is as if it was destroyed in its days. If they would have had a strong enough will, it would have been built.

As the Jordanian army fought for the Old City of Jerusalem, the Jews living there were forced to retreat along with the soldiers. With the deafening sounds of mortar shells exploding in the background, laced with strings of machine-gun fire, the Old City had become a fierce battleground.

The scene was incredibly emotional. Leaving the most sacred city in the world triggered deep yearnings and emotions in the hearts of its local residents, but they had no choice — the time had come to leave their homes / יָשִׁיבוֹת / shuls — in short, everything that was dear to them.

Disregarding the danger they faced, R' Ezra Attia, רֹאשׁ יְשִׁיבָּה of פּוֹרָת יוֹטֵף, and his colleague, R' David Laniado, went to rescue רי בָּן צִיוֹן Chazan, who was hiding out in his home, waiting for the last possible moment to leave. When they reached his house, they were immediately moved to tears. רי בָּן צִּיּוֹן was sitting on the floor, lamenting the destruction of the city with the chapter of תְּהָלִים of עַל נְחֵרוֹת בָּבֶל, שָׁם יָשְׁבֵנוּ גָם בְּכִינוּ, בְּזָּכְרֵנוּ ... צִיוֹן ... צִיוֹן

R' Ezra cried bitterly at this heartbreaking sight. When he composed himself, he mustered the strength to ask, "נְי בֶּן צִיּוֹן, what about the treasure houses of סְּבָּרִים? What happened to them?" His voice cracked as he feared the worst.

"They were all burned."

רי בֶּן צִּיוֹן burst out crying as they then recited the קִינָה of קִינָה burst out crying as they then recited the קִינָה of the אָשָׁלִי שָׂרוּפָה בָּאַשׁ, which we read on הָּשְׁעָה בְּאָשׁ, lamenting the burning of wagon-loads of the תַּלְמוּד in France in the year 1242.

"What about the shuls?" Again R' Ezra's question expressed doubts and worries.

"Many have been destroyed!"

As they sat on the floor mourning יְרִישְׁלֵים, the time had finally come for them to take leave of the city. R' Ezra placed his hand on come shoulder. רי בֶּן צִּיוֹן, don't cry. The time will come again soon when מְקוֹמוֹת קְדוֹשִׁים will be rebuilt. It won't be long until these מְקוֹמוֹת קְדוֹשִׁים will once again be in our hands."

Not long afterward, יְשִׁיבַת פּוֹרֶת יוֹשַף, was rebuilt in a new location. At the ground-breaking ceremony, R' Ezra quoted a יְשִׁינְהוּ from יְשִׁינְתוּהוּ from יְשִׁינְתוּהוּ from יְשִּינְתוּ עוֹלָם from יְשִׁינְתוּ (58.12), one quite fitting for the occasion: רְּבָנוֹ מִמְּדָּ הְרָבוֹת עוֹלָם, and you will restore generations-old foundations, יְבִיר בְּרָך לְדָר בְּרַר בָּרֶץ, and they will call you 'repairer of the breach,' מְשִׁבֵּב יְתִיבוֹת לָשֶׁבֶת, and 'restorer of paths for dwelling.'

R' Ezra elaborated on this פְּסֵּיק: Found in the תַּבְּטְרָה we read on it is 'r's promise to every person that no matter what has been destroyed, it can be rebuilt. Whether it is a person who has lost his way or a nation that has lost its country, we can recover and reclaim that which we have lost ... but only if we truly want to.

ספר ח״ח הלכות לשון הרע כלל ו׳ סעיף י״א

After davening on שַּׁבָּת morning, Mr. Fischer would give his weekly political analysis of the community's issues. The past week was even more interesting than usual. The local elections for shul president were the talk of the town and he wasn't going to miss the chance to offer his 'piece of wisdom.' There was one candidate whom he really did not like. He related to his 'followers' a story he had personally witnessed about the man's 'stupid' way of thinking.

Are Mr. Fischer's followers allowed to believe his story?

Stories adapted from Guard Your Tongue, A Daily Companion, A Lesson a Day and various real-life situations.

מְלַבֶּלְ לְהָּגְוֹ עֵּבֹרֵ Bujəq Jo

Answer: Absolutely not! The fact that Mr. Fischer related his derogatory report in front of a large crowd of people does not make it permissible to accept the story as absolute truth. Anyone believing Mr. Fischer's story without first verifying the facts would be guilty arrive.

Sage Sayings

There are many stories told about the humility, wit and unusual sensitivity of the 4th Gerrer Rebbe, ר' יִשְׂרָאֵל אֵלְתֵּר זַצִּי׳ל, the are the had an interesting custom: he would try to seek out the address of a visiting dignitary, stay for a short time and then leave. He was once asked why he did not wait for them to first come visit him, as was customary. He responded with a smile, "אוֹיב אִיךְ בּאַזוּךְ זִיֵי, בִּין אִיךְּ דַעֶּר בַּעָל הַבַּיִת וְוִי לֹאַנג אִיךְ בּליַיִבּ" — If I visit them, I am the one who decides how long I stay!"
