קוֹל דּוֹדִי הַנֵּה זֶה בָּא מְדַלֵּג עַל הֶהָרִים מְקַפֵּץ עַל הַגְּבָעוֹת

The voice of my Beloved! Behold it came suddenly to redeem me as if leaping over mountains, skipping over hills (הַשִּׁירָים בּ:ח).

בְּלֵל יִשְׂרָאֵל comments that when מְּדְרָשׁ שִׁיר הֵשִּׁירִים that their אָאוּלָה, redemption, from Egypt was imminent, they did not believe him. "How can this be, if we don't have the יְּבוּאַרְה necessary for יְּבוּאַרְיִּף they asked. מְשָׁה replied, "If הקב"יה desires to redeem you, He will overlook your many sins. In whose merit will the אוֹ בְּיִר בְּיִים among you, including בְּיִרְיִם and his בְּיִר דִין among you, including הקב"ה says, "If I will analyze their wicked deeds, בְּיִר יִשְּׁרָאֵל יִשְׁרָאֵל will never be redeemed. But I will redeem them in the merit of the leadership role עַמְרָם performs and the fact that the people accept his advice, because whoever heeds the advice of the "בִּיר מַשׁרִי will not stumble."

This מָדְרָשָׁ teaches that די will bring מְדְרָשׁ to the many in the merit of the few. A similar idea is found in אָבְרָשָּת פָּרָשִׁת וַּיֵּרָא, when די informed אַבְּרָחָם אַבְּרָחָם אַבְּרָחָם, when ידי informed אַבְּרָחָם that He intended to destroy the sinful city of סְדוֹם and its neighbors due to the selfishness and bad behavior of its inhabitants. The ידימִים represented the very opposite of what אַבְּרָחָם had devoted his life to teaching the world. In their eyes, he was certainly "public enemy number one." Nevertheless, he began to negotiate with יד to try to save them. אַרְלָי יֵשׁ חֲבִשׁׁ pleaded with יִדִּיק עִם רָשָׁעִ רְשָׁרָ עִּם רָשָׁעִ רְשָׁ רָשָׁעִ רְשָׁ רָשָׁ רָשָׁ רָשָׁ רָשָׁ רָשָׁת also stamp out the אַבְּרָחָם righteous, along with the wicked?

It seems as if אַבְּרָתָּם' s' efforts were in vain. Nonetheless, according to the Dubno Maggid, he did win an important agreement from יז; namely, that He would spare an entire city in the merit of a few אַדּיִקִּים. This did not help the אָדּוֹמִים but it was crucial when אַדּיִקִּים took place. There were many in בְּלֵל יִשְּׁרָאֵל who did not consider themselves worthy of redemption and refused to listen to אַמּרֹי s call to prepare to leave Egypt in מִשֶּׁה .נִיסָּן explained to them this concept, that despite the shortcoming of the vast majority of his fellow Jews, many of whom were idolaters, there existed among them a minority of pw. and r had promised to bring the אַנִּילִים in the merit of those few.

די. תְּמָלָה also teaches us the power of our אָבְרָהָם also teaches us the power of our אַבְּרָהָם sees the bigger picture. Quite often, it is better for us that the תְּמָלָה we daven is saved and applied at a later time for our future generations!

Living with Torah

... וִמְבֵּית שֲבָדִים פְּדִיתָנוּ בְּרָעָב זַנְתָּנוּ ... (From נִשְׁמַת.).

... and freed us from the house of bondage. In famine You nourished us ...

Why was מְצְרֵיִם called בְּיִת עֲבָדִים, a house of bondage? Because it was impossible for a servant to escape the bleak situation. So too, during a famine, the people are lost and desperate. With a strong אַמּרְיָה in יה the situation can change, and what appeared impossible yesterday, happens!

For Jews living in Leningrad during the height of the Cold War, life under Communism was nearly intolerable. Working long hours all week, a man could barely provide for a small family. But when a Jew would try to make a living, he was up against even greater odds.

תּוֹרָה observant Jews lived in constant terror that their forbidden observance would be discovered. That was a direct ticket to Siberia. All of the pressure forced hundreds of thousands of Jews to stop keeping שִּׁבְּׁה and abandon the תּוֹרָה. But R' Yitzchak Isaac Krasik would not succumb — not from the hunger, political pressure and certainly not from fear. He lived by his own set of rules. But one time his ingenuity got him in trouble.

On the first אַשָּׁי morning of his new job, he had shown up to work with a fake bandage on his head in order to get excused from work for the day. The next אַבְּּתוֹת he came in complaining of another ailment. For the first few אַבְּּתוֹת his manager authorized his sick leave. Then he noticed the pattern. Every אַבְּעַ, R' Krasik came in with another excuse. Each time another mysterious ailment prevented him from doing any physical labor. Finally the plant manager called him in and informed him that he knew precisely what tricks he was up to. R' Krasik quickly shifted gears. He pleaded with his boss and the man promised, at least for now, not to report the "crime." After another few weeks, however, he fired R' Krasik from his job.

He was now faced with the daunting challenge of finding a job to help feed his family. But no one was willing to overlook the fact that he skipped work every שָׁבָּת. Weeks turned into months and the Krasik family was desperate for food. With מָּבֶּע approaching, the home was completely bare. Not a morsel of food could be found.

Searching For Survival

As the eve of the 14th of יָּיָיִי was upon them, they were required to check their home for any possible חָמֵץ. The thought was ludicrous. אָמַף in their barren home? How could he possibly check for אָחַף, at a time like this when his entire family was starving? A thought crossed R' Krasik's mind: Perhaps this year there was no obligation for him to check for אָחַף. Perhaps the entire house was considered a מְמַרְנִיסִים בּוֹ חָמֵץ – a place where no אָחַף, could have possibly entered.

His nephew, R' Meir Dobrovsky, came over and they discussed the idea of not checking for אָמֵּי, since there was obviously no food to be found. Nevertheless, the notion of skipping בְּּדִיקֵּת entirely just did not seem right. We check for אָמֵי, because that is what יז wants from us and not necessarily because of what we might find. Although his hunger made it feel more like יוֹם כָּפּוּר than אַפַּי, R' Yitzchak was determined to fulfill the requirement to search for אָמֵי,

As night fell and the stars appeared, he began his solemn search. Going through the motions, he walked from room to room searching for חָמֵיץ. Though weak from hunger, he kept at it. When he was almost finished, he stumbled across a large roll! He could hardly believe his eyes. Where had it come from. It couldn't possibly have been there beforehand. But there it was before his very eyes.

He sat down upon concluding his הְּדִיקַת תְּמֵץ and, together with his family, ate a very special בְּדִיקַת חָמֵץ סְעוּדָה. As they savored every morsel that entered their mouths, their joy knew no bounds. Together they had upheld a 3000-year-old tradition and now their efforts were being rewarded.

R' Yitzchak never forgot that lesson: A person must do what he is required to do, and help will come from the most unlikely of places.

*Chaim asked Fischel to come to the dining room after school. When Fischel came into the dining room, he saw that Chaim was wiping away a tear. Chaim told Fischel that he had taken a side alley to get to יָשִׁיכָּה. He walked past a non-kosher restaurant and notice that Fischel's 'friend' was standing at the counter ordering a cheeseburger. He walked in to the restaurant and tried to stop the boy from eating the non-kosher food, but the boy was not interested.

Can Fischel believe Chaim's story and spread it around?

'Stories adapted from Guard Your Tongue, A Daily Companion, A Lesson a Day and various real-life situations.

Answer: Fischel is allowed to be went that the story happened, and must keep away from this people about the episode if they can help; however, it is now, to spread the story around to people about the episode if they can help; however, it is now, to spread the story around to people who can do nothing.

R' Halberstam was also the מב and of the Shaarei Tzedek Hospital פּוֹסֵק and as the spiritual authority for the Bikur Cholim Hospital, standing by the hospital during hard times. He would take part in various hospital events and provide staff physicians with an attentive ear. Numerous people would come to his home and to the nearby בֵּית הוֹרָאָה, including many doctors and others, with halachic questions related to medicine. Healthcare professionals were often astounded by his profound understanding of medical matters.

R' Moshe was also a חֶסֶד machine. He worked to promote various צְּדָקָה and תְּסֶּד organizations, including four decades at the head of the רי מֵאִיר בַּעַל תַּגַּט Foundation, dedicating hours of his time to help the poor of אָרֶץ יִשְׂרָאֵל he also served as תַּצְלָה יִשְׂרָאֵל, eonstantly guiding the directors of the organization in halachic matters.

R' Moshe was known for his tolerance towards all types of people and treated every Yid with great respect. People remember how he made that extra special efforts to gladden them by attending their תָּבָּי despite his full schedule. His תָבָּי אָלִיטִייא, said at his תְּלֵימִי hat for over 50 years his תְּלְמִי would call him every Friday afternoon to wish him a מוללים and then the two would converse on halachic matters.

My תּלְמִיד, with such a special combination of תּוֹרָה עִם דֶּרָדָּ אֶרֶץ. is it any wonder that the חֲזוֹן אָישׁ would honor עָלְיָה with an אָלָיָה, saying that he is destined for !תּוֹרָה in !תּוֹרָה !

Understanding Davening

וַיַאַמִינוּ בַּה׳ וּבִמשָה עַבִדוּ

The word וַיַּאַמִינוּ is often translated they had belief or faith. Faith implies complete acceptance of something not supported by reason. Indviduals who witness an event with their own eyes do not need to have faith to believe in the truth of that event. Similarly, בַּלֵל יִשְׁרָאֵל, having seen with their own eyes the Divine revelations at קְרִיעַת יַם งาง, did not have to rely on faith to believe in די. They knew and experienced יד's Mighty Hand as it triumphed over פַּרְעֹה. Based on this understanding, the meaning of אֶמוּנָה is complete trust in and dependence on 77. Our trust is based on the entire nation personally witnessing the event of מַתַּן תּוֹרָה, which was then transmitted precisely from father to son. It is as though we ourselves witnessed קריעת יַם סוּף. We reaffirm our trust in τ every day.
