bills, etc.), costing him the same amount of money he "gained." In the end, the bottom line will be what הקבייה intended it to be.

The following story illustrates this concept:

Yaakov cultivates flowers in Israel's Central Region. In preparation for שמיטה 5740 (1980), upon the directives of פוֹסקים, Yaakov planted his fields well in advance of ראש הַשְּׁנָה so as to permit a harvest, with distribution controlled by the local בית דִין. However, during the following summer of שָׁמִיטָה he was not permitted to till the soil or plant. It would be too late to start working the fields after ended. His flowers have to be uprooted and planted anew each year, so it seemed that he would have no crop at all for the year following שמיטה.

The local בית דין found no loophole to allow Yaakov to plant anew. One of the בנים suggested that after the שמיטה year was over, Yaakov should water and fertilize his old plants. "Who knows?" the בר reasoned. "Perhaps your old plants will yield another crop."

They did ... and they even produced another crop the following year.

If one keeps the מצוה of שמיטה, if he absorbs its message, he will understand that cheating is not only wrong - it is futile.

Adapted from: Rabbi Frand on the Parashah (with kind permission from ArtScroll)

When you sell to your friend ... do not cheat one another. In the middle of its instructions regarding שמיטה, the תורה, the תורה inserts the prohibition of אוֹנָאָה, overcharging — אַל תּוֹנו אִישׁ אַת אָחִיו Why is it stated here? Furthermore, the laws of שמיטה are essentially laws about land, but the laws of אונאָה do not apply to real estate, since land prices fluctuate by location and many other variables. Why then do the הַלָּכוֹת of אוֹנָאָה which apply only to movable property, appear in the midst of the שְׁמִיטָה laws that apply to the land?

The בית אב explains: The underlying message of the שמיטה year is to impress upon us that everything we have comes directly from '7. Do not think that the harder you work, the more you earn. We are told to leave our land fallow and not plow or plant it for a full year, and we are guaranteed that our livelihood will still not suffer.

This concept demonstrates that cheating is pointless. A person who cheats thinks that his underhanded methods will bring him some additional money; however, if he honestly believes that everything comes from 'T, then he certainly cannot expect to outsmart Him. He may think that he is gaining a few dollars by cheating, but then some unanticipated expense will arise (parking tickets, doctor's

Living with Torah Israeli Farming, Winter 5771: A Small Miracle

וּבַשָּׁנָה הַשָּׁבִיעִת שַׁבַּת שַׁבָּתוֹן ... שַׁבָּת לַהי שָׂדָךְ לֹא תְזָרַע וְכַרְמִךְ לֹא תִזְמֹר (ניקרא כה:ד)

But the seventh year shall be a complete rest ... a שַׁבָּת for Hashem; your field you shall not sow and your vineyard you shall not prune.

... נָבַּרִי כֹחַ עשִׁי דְבָרוֹ, לִשְּׁמֹעַ בְּקוֹל דְבָרוֹ. וֹתְהְלִים קג:כוֹ

"... The strong warriors who do His bidding, obeying the sound of His word" — R' Yitzchak Nafcha said: This refers to those who observe יְּשְמִיטָה.. This man sees his field lie fallow, his vineyard lie fallow — and he accepts all this in silence! Can there be a more powerful warrior than he? (יַלְקוּט שָׁבֵעוֹנְי תַּהְלִים תת"ס).

The תּוֹרָה refers to the year of שִּׁמִיטָה as שַׁבָּת לָהי. The observance of שַׁבָּת bears testimony that הקבייה created the world in 6 days and rested on the seventh. When one refrains from work on אָבַת, he demonstrates his belief that it is הקבייה Who determines whether his efforts to earn a living during the six workdays will succeed. Similarly, the observance of שָׁמִיטָה proclaims that the land is הקב"ה's and that it is He Who determines whether or not the farmer's efforts during the other 6 years of the שָׁמִיטָה cycle yield good crops.

Recent שׁמִיטָה years have seen thousands of religious farmers lay down their plows and allow their fields to lie fallow. In several instances, farmers have clearly seen how the faith which they demonstrated during שְׁמִיטָה brought blessing to their crops.

A banana farmer who was completely secular decided he would undertake to keep שָׁמִיטָה this time around. He approached the for assistance. They stipulated that he would be registered in their program if he would also undertake to personally be שוֹמֵר שַׁבָּת throughout שִׁמִיטָה. He agreed. פַרָן הַשְּבִיעִית undertook to cover his farming expenses in return for which all the produce would become the property of אוצר בֵּית דִין and would be distributed in full accordance with הַלֶּכָה.

Israel had suffered a significant cold spell over a 2-3 week period. Bananas don't like cold. Cold doesn't like bananas. When bananas are still growing and get hit with frost, they turn brown and become rock-hard.

The hero of our story, the banana farmer, knew he was in deep trouble when the relentless cold lasted for over a week. He lived a bit far from his orchard and had not yet seen the damage with his own eyes. He received calls from farmers who have orchards bordering his, complaining bitterly that their entire banana crops had been destroyed by the frost. He decided it was time to inspect the damage up close, painful as it might be.

He drove up close to טבריה to inspect his orchard and those of neighboring farmers. As he passed from one orchard to another, he was overwhelmed by the damage. Not a single fruit had survived, no tree was spared. His neighbors had taken quite a beating. All the bananas were brown and hard as rocks. He could only imagine how bad his trees must look.

Yet when he finally got to his orchard, he was awestruck! ALL of his bananas were yellow and green. It was as if his orchard was not part of this parcel of land. His orchard bordered those of his neighbors, but not a single tree of his was struck by the frost. It was as if a protective wall kept the damage away.

At first, he thought he was imagining it. As he rushed from one section of his orchard to another, the realization hit home that, more than the farmer keeps the שָׁמִיטָה, the שָׁמִיטָה keeps the farmer.

He immediately called his contacts at קַרָן הַשָּׁבִיעִית and yelled into the phone, "קָרָה גַס!" — a miraculous modern-day manifestation of "וְצְנִיתֵי אֵת בַּרְכָתִי"!

The only way to explain the miracle is that '7 keeps His promises. He says, "Keep שמיטה, and I'll take care of you." He surely does! קַרָן הַשְּׁבִיעִית reported that farmers who until now had refused to keep שָׁמִיטָה turned to the קַרָן following the losses suffered as a result of the frost — they were now ready to commit to שָׁמִיטָה observance.

Focus on Middos

Dear Talmid,

In 1951, much to the concern of the frum community, the Israeli government decided to draft women into its army. The בְּנֵי בְּרַק and בְּנֵי בְּרַק that, regardless of the circumstances, no frum girl should enter the army. A committee of בְּנִים, among them R' Zelig Reuven Bengis עָדָה, the בֹּן of the עַדָּה in חַרֵיִדִית, immediately drew up a letter to the government to protest the proposed draft.

The letter was completed and sent to the most prominent רְבָּנִים of the day to obtain their signatures. Afterwards, it was returned to R' Bengis, who had not yet signed it.

R' Bengis quickly scanned the page, pen in hand. Suddenly, he put down his pen, closed his eyes, and began to rock back and forth, his forehead creased in concentration.

Several minutes later, R' Bengis sighed heavily and his eyes filled with tears. Then he picked up the pen and signed the letter with great care.

"Why did the בק have to reconsider whether to sign the letter?" asked someone standing nearby. "Wasn't the בק involved in writing the letter to begin with?"

"Yes, I was," responded R' Bengis, "but I just reread the letter and noticed that one בּק had added the phrase הַחוֹתַם, who signs with tears, at the end. Until now, I had never shed tears over the situation. Therefore, before signing, I sat down to contemplate the tragic situation of girls being forced to enter the army and only then, when tears came to my eyes, was I able to sign."

My תּלְמִיד, our level of honesty goes hand in hand with our level of יְרָאֵת שָׁמֵיִם. R' Bengis's sensitivity to being precise in his wording on a קוֹרָא did not just reveal his impeccable honesty, it gives us a glimpse into the depth of his great יַרְאָת שַׁמֵיִם.

...אַקדָמוּת מִלִּין... In introduction to the Words...

אַקּדָמוּת was written by R' Meir צֵיִיל, son of R' Yitzchok זצ"ל, as an introduction to the words of the עשרת הדברות. According to many Jewish historians, he was רָבִּי׳ s רֻבִּי׳. R' Meir is quoted frequently throughout ייי s many works, most notably in סְדוּר 's many works, most notably in רשייי and אַקדּמוּת השׁוּבוֹת רשׁייי was composed around the era of the 1st Crusade. It was specifically written in complex Aramaic so that it would be difficult for gentile scholars to understand. During the difficult years of exile, when R' Meir's son was murdered by the crusaders and was אַקדַמוּת ,נְפְטֵר עַל קדושׁ די was sung with great affection. It is a song of חאק in אמונה, love for די love of די towards כלל and a description of the ישראל of משית of משית and עוֹלָם הַבַּא.
